all intersections otherwise

THE FAKE DEBATE

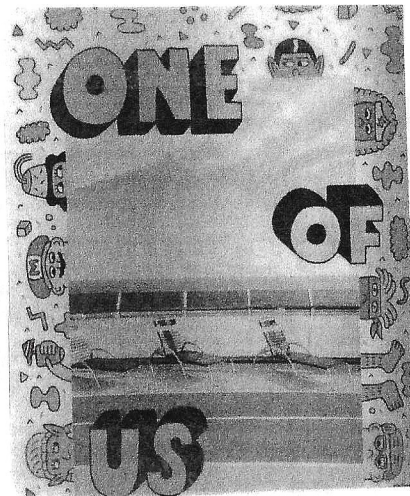

I'm at work. I'm at the grocery store. I'm anywhere and taking up as little space as I can.

ROLE MODEL

I'm here for my daughter and me. I want my daughter's voice to be louder than mine. I want her to take up space as large as she needs. I'm trying to be the mom I didn't have. Loving, caring, understanding. She makes me want everything.

She's FEARLESS. I worry I'll FAIL her.

Feminist → I don't know how to teach her what that means. I'm not sure I know what it means consistently. I'm doing my best. It will be enough. It has to be.
